

Shri. Dr. R. G. Rathod Arts & Science College Murtizapur, Dist. Akola

Programme Specific Outcomes (PSOs)

POLITICAL SCIENCE

Upon completion of the Programme successfully, students would be able to

Sr. No.	PSOs
1	Political Science students will be able to participate in various social, political, academic and professional competitions.
2	Political science students will succeed in a variety of social and political research fields.
3	Students of Political Science will be able to analyze various political events, political events, political policies, public policies and administration.
4	Students of Political Science will be able to analyze the relevance of various political theories and ideas in the current context.

SOCIOLOGY

Upon completion of the Programme successfully, students would be able to

Sr. No.	PSOs
1	Students are introduced to social institutions, organizations and their nature, function and utility.
2	To create awareness among students about their nature and causes of various social problems and to study and find solutions to them
3	To teach students about social values and norms and to create ideal citizens
4	To introduce students to tribal society and culture, their problems and develop a positive attitude towards them

Shri. Dr. R. G. Rathod Arts & Science College Murtizapur, Dist. Akola

GEOGRAPHY

Upon completion of the Programme successfully, students would be able to

Sr. No.	PSOs
1	Knowledge of physical geography, fundamental concepts of geography, and geotectonic and geomorphic processes. Also, students have detailed information about the atmosphere, earth, oceans and planets.
2	Students can easily correlate the aspects of physical and human geography and can analyze the problem occurring in rural and urban areas. Also, a student will have the ability to solve the problem of such measures.
3	Analyzing the differential patterns of the human occupancy of the Earth, through studies of human reimbursements and population dynamics
4	As a student of the course, they will enrich their observation power through field experience and in the future, this will be cooperative for identifying the socio-environmental problems of their community.

ECONOMICS

Upon completion of the Programme successfully, students would be able to

Sr. No.	PSOs
1	To study philosophies of economics and values and see their applications. To Understand and study the Maharashtra & Indian Economy
2	To Understand and study the monetary politics of India
3	To Conclude Financial variables as well as inflation, unemployment poverty, Indian population, and balance of payment.
4	To Understand the money markets and make investment decisions.

Shri. Dr. R. G. Rathod Arts & Science College Murtizapur, Dist. Akola

HOME ECONOMICS

Upon completion of the Programme successfully, students would be able to

Sr. No.	PSOs
1	To introduce students to the subject of Home Economics. To create awareness among students about family resources and their management.
2	To develop knowledge and skills about the principles and methods of interior decoration. To develop skills in making bouquets and flower arrangements for decoration and to increase employment opportunities.
3	Understanding the basic concepts of nutrition. To gain knowledge about nutrients and nutritional value of food. To get familiar with the classification of food according to its functions. To acquire the ability to plan diet for various diseases as well as for healthy humans.
4	Understanding methods of food preparation, conservation, growth and preservation. To promote entrepreneurship skills. To introduce students to key concepts of human development, to understand and deal with various behavioral problems of children.

HISTORY

Upon completion of the Programme successfully, students would be able to

Sr. No.	PSOs
1	The study of history introduces students to the past of their great nation and ultimately the world.
2	History develops awareness of our ancient culture and civilization.
3	The study of history encourages students to protect our great monuments.
4	History plays an important role in the sense of patriotism, nation building and progress of the country.
5	Students can enrich their lives by knowing the facts and events of history.